Hi-Jacket 1984

The lights dim and an expectant hush blankets the crowd. What will the new year bring? No one can say for sure, but the Osbourn Park cast is backstage awaiting their cues, anxious to make this one of the best years ever.

The Seniors know the routine well and settle into their new found Senior Privileges easily. The freshmen, suffering from opening night jitters, stare at the self-confident upperclassmen.

There are no stars on the OP program. Each and every character is important, necessary, to make each act of the 83-84 school year exciting and fulfilling.

The final rustlings of the audience stop and through the stillness the voice of the director rings loud and clear, Lights, Action, Yellow Jackets . . .

Homecoming 1983

Jackets buzz by Raiders 20-19

H — hyper; O — outrageous; M — maddening;
E — exciting; C — crazy; O — odd; M — megawicked; I — imaginative; N — nostalgic; G
— glorious. This only expresses half of what

Homecoming was this year.

Homecoming began with Spirit Week as everyone showed their school spirit by dressing up in wild outfits. The week started with "Nerd Day", followed by "Opposite Sex Day", "Fantasy Day", and "Blue and Gold Day." From Patti Durham's slip hanging out, to Amy Coddington's briefcase, to Mark Rendell's satin skirt and high heels, and Mike Willems' Dallas Cowboy Cheerleader outfit, everyone showed their spirit. "Fantasy Day," brought out the real "you" — nuns, clowns, marines, and arabs. The week concluded as "Blue and Gold Day" transformed the school into a sea of shimmering gold and blue.

Our contagious spirit showed us that "Dreams can come True." This proved to be more than just a theme for Homecoming this year; especially when our Varsity football team buzzed by the Districts' first place team: Loudoun County. The Jackets came out on top with a final score of 20-19 in one of the most exciting games of the season.

At the halftime, the crowd watched and listened with anticipation as the princesses were chauffeured around the track and escorted to their places to await the Queen's coronation. The final moment of suspense arrived when our 1983

Homecoming Queen was announced and crowned: Miss Lavonne Bowman.

The Homecoming festivities continued on Saturday night with the dance. Music, provided by "Skylight" filled our Cafeteria, and we boogied and slowly swayed among the glittering stars and silvery cylinders.

The 1983 Homecoming Court led by our Queen Lavonne Bowman, came forward and our new king, Tim Keenan was crowned.

With speed, the festivities flew by and the Homecoming week end came to a close. This was definitely a week-end we will never forget!

Seniors

At Last

Since our freshman year we've been eagerly awaiting our big moment as Seniors. It's 1984 and we made it. At one point this year we were told we weren't going to graduate early. The school board voted that we graduate on June 8th with the underclassmen. This put the Seniors in an uproar. Petitions flew around school. Parents and students filled the school-board halls demanding a reconsideration of the decision. Finally after weeks of arguing, the Seniors were given back June 1st as the graduation date.

We were granted the usual Senior privileges; Senior lounge, 5 college days, Senior Banquet, Senior Picnic and early dismissal for assemblies.

Soon the year will come to an end and no one knows what the future holds and as we say our good-byes, we will never forget all the good times we shared together at OPHS.

Senior Class Officers: President: David Lucchesi, Vice President: Julie Peet, Treasurer: Lisa Hurst, and Secretary: Carolyn Perry

Juniors

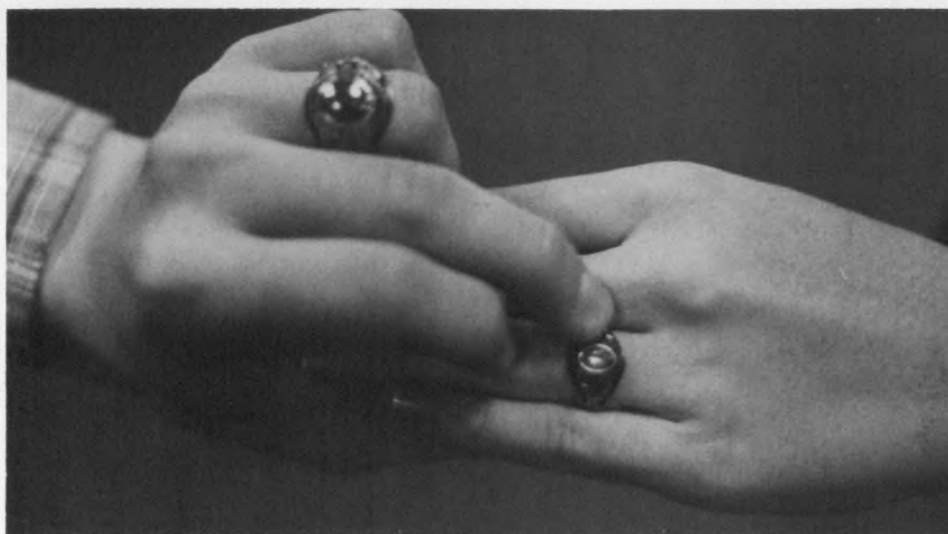

Almost There

We entered O.P.H.S. as Juniors for the first time in August. What did it feel like to finally be an upper-classman? "Fantastic, awesome, for sure, not to mention real." We survived the first two years of constant put-downs, getting lost, locker problems and most embarrassingly, relying on Mom and Dad for transportation.

This year some Juniors got their licenses and class rings as well. These were the highlights of the Junior year, but then there were those dreaded SAT tests and Achievements that we began to take for college. Actually they weren't that bad and the class of '85 took on the year with great expectations of being big seniors next year.

The Sophomores

Second Step UP

Being a sophomore was quite an exasperating experience, for we weren't quite upperclassmen, yet we weren't exactly lower classmen either — just somewhere in between. Things were still in a state of confusion! "Should I be thinking about college preparation courses?" "What about the dreaded SAT?" By the end of the year the class of '86 gained the confidence necessary to climb up the ladder to take over the spotlight as Juniors.

Freshmen

It took several weeks of school before the freshman class finally began to fit in. Remembering the first day brings back memories of mass confusion.

"Where is LA09?", "Who is in my class?", "Where is the middle staircase?". These are familiar thoughts of a typical freshman's first day. Soon the "frosh" settled into their new school. By the first pep rally, the class of '87 had become strong and united. They finished the year with newly gained confidence and will come back next year, climbing up the ladder as seasoned sophomores.

Three words come to mind when considering the faculty at OPHS: dedication, thought and challenge. We at OPHS are fortunate to have such highly skilled teachers. They are dedicated to the student body and sharing their knowledge. One can always count on seeing the faculty at games and school activities. They not only give us their support in the classroom, but along all walks of life. We tend to look at the staff as role models who help to develop our ideals and attitudes.

With the growth of our school in the past year several new teachers were added to the staff. They were welcomed by the students and soon became part of the big OP family.

The Jacket Spirit: Catch It!

Everyone knows that our school is made up of the freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior classes, and at pep rallies we battle it out to see which class has the most spirit. What many people don't realize is that at every pep rally a fifth class is created: The class of Osbourn Park. After the spirit stick was awarded at each pep rally this year, we all united to cheer our teams to victory and show our support to our devoted athletes. The enthusiasm of the faculty and student body was evident from the poster and streamer-clad gym to the rousing beat of the band.

The effort and participation of the classes was rewarded by the presentation of the spirit stick. The Class of '85's thunderous screams continued their reign of holding the spirit stick but were defeated by the sophomores in the second pep rally. At the City pep rally, the Class of '84 showed tremendous enthusiasm and after four years of shouting themselves hoarse to no avail, they gained possession of the spirit stick. The spirited seniors also won the annual spirit link contest with the Class of '85 close behind, and the freshmen were third.

Some believe that the increase of students accounts for all the spirit our school has, but it's the popular opinion of the O.P. student body that we're so spirited because we've got so much to be proud of!

Queen Bees Take It To The Top

Once again, a few girls cut their summers short and came to the school gym early. They came dressed in shorts and high tops ready to work hard.

The Queen Bees began their victorious season preparations with hard workouts and heavy practicing.

The girls began the season with a big weight on their shoulders — "Can we do as well as last year's team?" This wish soon became a reality through the superior coaching of Ken Krieger and the teamwork of the girls. They finished the season with a 12-2 record and captured the Northwestern District's regular season championship for the second straight year. The team continued on to Regionals and put on a performance which deserves applause. Through excellent defense and offense the girls were able to keep up with Wilson Memorial but they lost it in the last 7 seconds by one basket. This was truly a heartbreaking experience for our hard-working team. We at OPHS are proud of our Queen Bees and they will always be #1 in our eyes.

Number 50 Scores to 1,000

In November of 1982 a great basketball feat was accomplished. Debbie Saffer was the first to score 1,000 points in her high school varsity basketball career. This year an even greater feat was accomplished. Mona Haynes our star center was the first in Prince William County to score 1,000 points in three years.

According to Coach Krieger, Mona was a "model player, very coachable and was determined to succeed and be the best". She led the team in scoring two years in a row. She averaged 24.8 points a game, 12.5 rebounds, 5 steals, and 3-4 blocked shots a game. As a player she not only led the team to Northwestern Districts, but to Region II finals as well.

Mona has many other credits to her name. She was chosen for the first team districts both 1982-83 and 1983-84 seasons, and was chosen for first team all Region for the last two years. The Journal-Messenger chose her as player of the year in 1982-83.

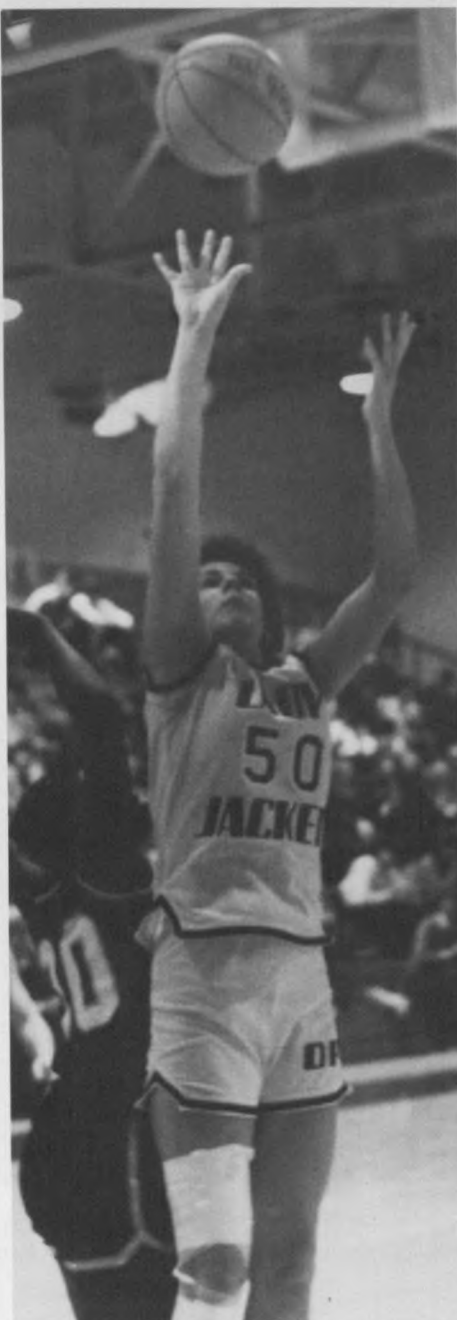

The O.P.H.S. basketball team with the talent of Mona, had two prime seasons. She has left something to be desired by future athletes at O.P. If her progress this year is any indication of future success she'll have a promising future.

A victory cake for Mona's record breaking night.

Senior Lisa Hurst puts in another 2 points.

Mona Haynes displays an air of confidence as she gets ready to add to the scoreboard.

"We are the champions"

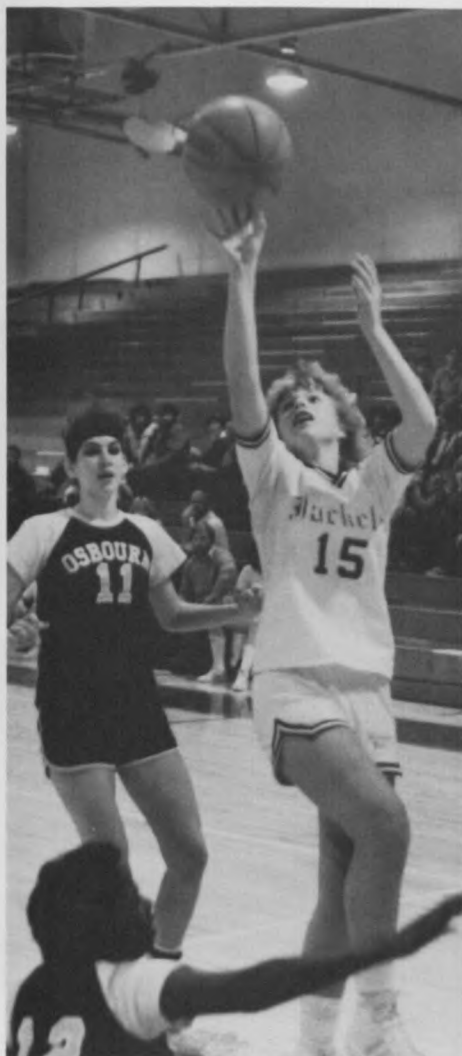

This year's J.V. Basketball team had only two returning members, Chrissie Arrington and Leslie Childers. The rest of the team was made up of freshmen. Coach Mummert brought this young team a long way with an impressive 17-3 record. On Saturday November 5, the girls combined hard work, talent, team effort, and enthusiastic attitudes to capture the District Championship. These hardworking girls will be a welcome addition to the Varsity team next year.

Jackets Get It Together.

In recent years O.P. has been known to be slow out of the blocks and unfortunately this trend continued into 1983. Nothing seemed to work for the Yellow Jackets the first half of the season as they started off with an 0-4-1 record. The second half was a different story as the football team came alive and streaked to four consecutive victories before losing the finals to arch-rival Osbourn City.

Many people picked O.P. to win Districts before the season began, but the slow start quickly dimmed their chances to take the crown in this, their final year in Northwestern District.

The teams 4-5-1 record is deceiving because of their slow start. When the Jackets did swarm, they could beat anybody. The first victim was Brentsville. The next was undefeated Loudoun County, and chances for a victory seemed slim but the Jackets swarmed in the second half to a final score of 20-19.

The string of victories continued with defeats of Broad Run and Warren County. One of the major reasons for the winning streak was the emergence of the "Sophomore Sensations". At runningback, Victor Cahoon, Thomas Keith, and Tommy Chambliss gave us one of the most potent backfields in the District. Together they accounted for over 1,000 yards rushing.

The Yellow Jackets went into their final game with a .500 record hoping to give O.P. its first winning record in four years. The Jackets trailed at halftime 16-0, but the second half was a different story. Unfortunately the season ended with a heartbreaking 16-14 loss against Osbourn.

J.V. — Ready For Action!

What does one think of when he hears the words "champs", "first class", and "the absolute best"? J.V. football!!! This year's J.V. football team had a fantastic year due to their experience together last year on the freshman team. There were a few new juniors on the team who added even more dimensions, all which resulted in a winning season.

The team's strongest players were Donald Garret, Carl Jenkins, Tim Hellin, Eric Sweely and Kenny Britton. Defense kept the team alive this year. They played the most in the games and contributed a great deal to the superior team record.

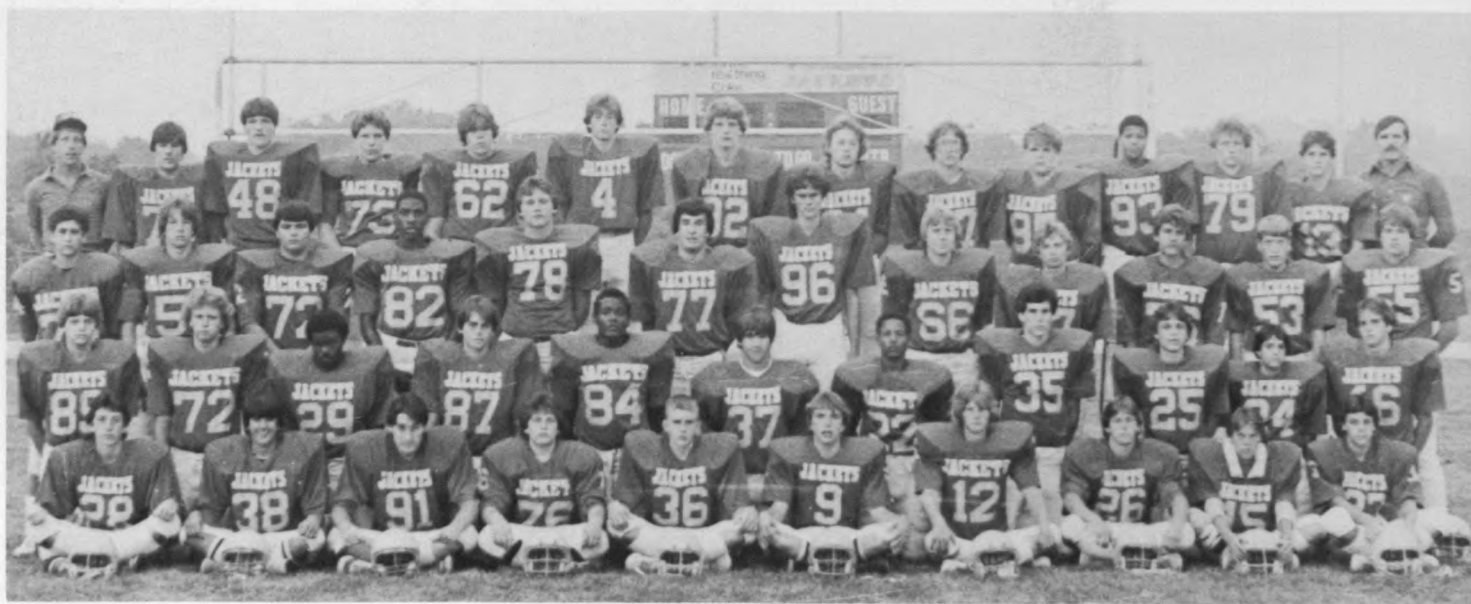

The O.P. defense sets up for the next play.

This year's freshman team had a tough season. Though they had problems playing together as a unit, they were fair in size and had a strong defense down on the goal line. Strong players Tony Brooks, John Price, Greg Harvey, Matt Harris, David Boyleston, and Jeff Blevens led this young team in the competitive season.

A Winning Season

The 1983-84 Volleyball team, led by last year's MVP, Cyndi Knicely and All Regions, Maggie Lin, achieved the best record the team has ever had. Finishing their season with a 5-7 record, the Jackets beat highly competitive teams, such as Garfield and Woodbridge. Under the guidance of Coach "D" and co-captains Kelly Thompson, and Karen Ramey, the team remained victorious throughout the season. Seniors Daivie Stream, Millie Seymour and foreign exchange student Annika Westerlund also contributed to the winning season.

Freshmen Volleyball.

This year, Osbourn Park had its first freshmen team. The team was quite young, therefore it lacked the experience to produce winning scores. Even though the girls finished the season with a 1-8 record, they grew together as a single unit and gained the necessary experience for next year's J.V. team.

J.V. Volleyball

The J.V. Volleyball team consists primarily of sophomores. This year the team reached a milestone in that they had an excellent record of 5-7 compared to last years 2-10 record. When asked the difference between this year's team and last year's, Paula Jones (86) responded, "We learned from our mistakes last year, and our communication on the court was better!"

The arrival of a new coach, Larry Nemerow, added many new dimensions to the Osborn Park Girls Soccer team. Experienced coaching, combined with the strength, talent, eagerness and speed of the team, led to a visible improvement in playing skill and knowledge of the game throughout the season. The very young team (with only four seniors) impressed the crowd with improvement in every game. They ended the season with 3-9 record overall, and a District record of 1-9.

An "Up To Par" Year

This year's golf team consisted of 9 players; Seniors Rick Brown, and David Russell, Juniors Scott Himes, Steve Pierce, Mike Tyson, Eric Kerner and Bobby Shenfish and Freshman Matt Himes, and Carl Jensen. The team finished the season winning 12 matches and losing 7 matches. The outstanding golfers were Rick Brown, David Russell, Scott Himes, and Bobby Shenfish. Rick Brown and David Russell tied for the final Regional Qualifying spot. Rick, in playing the Regional Tournament, missed qualifying for the state tournament when he doubled bogeyed the last hole. David defeated Rick on the first play off hole by one stroke. The young men on the golf team, having their first measure of success, will devote the off season to sharpening their skills for next year's season.

Indoor Track

"Hey, did you hear about the indoor track meet?"

"What the heck are you talking about?"

That's about the basic recognition the indoor track team gets. These devoted runners, led by Coach Kuhn, faced the blistering cold of winter every day. They continued to improve their form and prepare themselves for Spring track. There was no competition between schools, which were much larger than O. P., but rather a race against the clock. Our indoor track team deserved more recognition than it got. These devoted athletes ran, even in the worst of situations, to condition their bodies for the upcoming spring.

"Give me a 'J', give me an 'A', give me a 'C', give me a 'K', give me an 'E', give me a 'T', give me an 'S', what have you got? Jack-ets! Louder! Jackets! One more time! Jackets!"

This is what we hear and take for granted at games. We don't realize that through hard work and dedication the OPHS cheerleaders support our teams and supply spirit to our school.

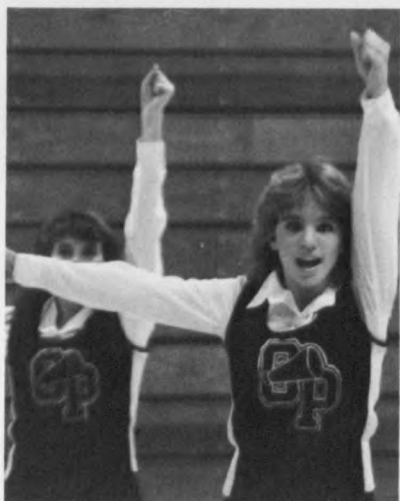

This year's Freshmen squad was captained by Vicki Anderson. The other members were Lori Burger, Jannine Bateman, Diane Berger, Condit Conrad, Linda Edwards, Karen Ruhe, and Robin White.

The J.V. squad was captained by Junior Terri Monroe. The other members were Kim Brown, Carlyn Davis, Donna Goodwin, Christie Hazel, Donna Jordan, Heather Murphy, and Yvonne Powell.

The Varsity squad, captained by Carla Montague and Patti Durham, consisted of Susan Anderson, Lisa Bailess, Lavonne Bowman, Jan Fox, Erica Miller, Amy Pfefferkorn, Jackie Potter, and Sandee Schatz.

This summer the girls went to camp and won four blue ribbons, one red ribbon, and the "Award of Excellence." They were awarded a trip to Dallas to compete, and took the spirit stick home. When we think of cheerleaders we think of looks and popularity, but cheerleaders have dedication and spirit for themselves and you.

Majorettes / Flags

Being a majorette requires a great skill and discipline. A perfect routine depends on the coordination of each girl. This year's squad is made up of Diane Cardwell, Mary Polley and Judy Magonigle.

The girls practice long and hard after school every day during the football season. They make up their own routines which in itself is a hard task. At half time all the hard work pays off as the girls lead the band in the performance.

The colorguard is another group of dedicated girls who perform during the football season. Under the direction of Mr. Carnahan and last year's seniors, Lee Grubbs and Kathy Lloyd, the girls produce a dramatic performance of double "butterflies", single "butterflies" and tic tocs. With many afterschool practices, the girls successfully added color and spirit to O.P.H.S. fields.

100 Percent

The fourteen members of the Pom Pom Squad, captained by Sandy Robinson and Stephany Hughitt, all agree that they had enjoyed a successful season this year. They attributed their improvement to hours of hard practice, working well with one another, and their new sponsor, Mrs. Dever.

The girls performed at Freshman Orientation, pep rallies, and home football and basketball games.

A member of the squad commented, "We really concentrated on our performing this year. We had the guidance that we needed from Mrs. Dever, Sandy and Stephany and the rest we left up to ourselves — We knew that every one of us had to give 100%, and we did."

Varsity Basketball

Lightening on the Court

Although the varsity basketball team finished without a winning record this year, they had one of their finest seasons ever.

Spurred on by what Coach Payne called his "quickest team ever" the Yellow Jackets had a number of offensive weapons to fire at their opponent.

Along with all of the team's quickness the Jackets had plenty of height up front to swat away opposing shots and haul down their errant shots. Ken Pryor, (6'7"), Doug Poppe, (6'5"), Tim Keenan, (6'3"), and Luther Washington, (6'3"), formed the nucleus of the front court, along with valuable reserves Eric Sweeley, Rob Lowery, and Doug Shelton.

Kevin Washington, Andre Delaney and Victor Cahoon gave the Yellow Jackets several "jet burners" in the backcourt from which O.P. ran their offense and defense.

Seniors Jeff Warren and Andy Rusciolli saw plenty of action at guard and gave Coach Payne the chance to use different lineups throughout the year.

Coach Payne and Coach Herndon caught up in the excitement of the game.

Osborn Park spread its offense around with Kevin Washington, Luther Washington and Doug Poppe all averaging in double figures.

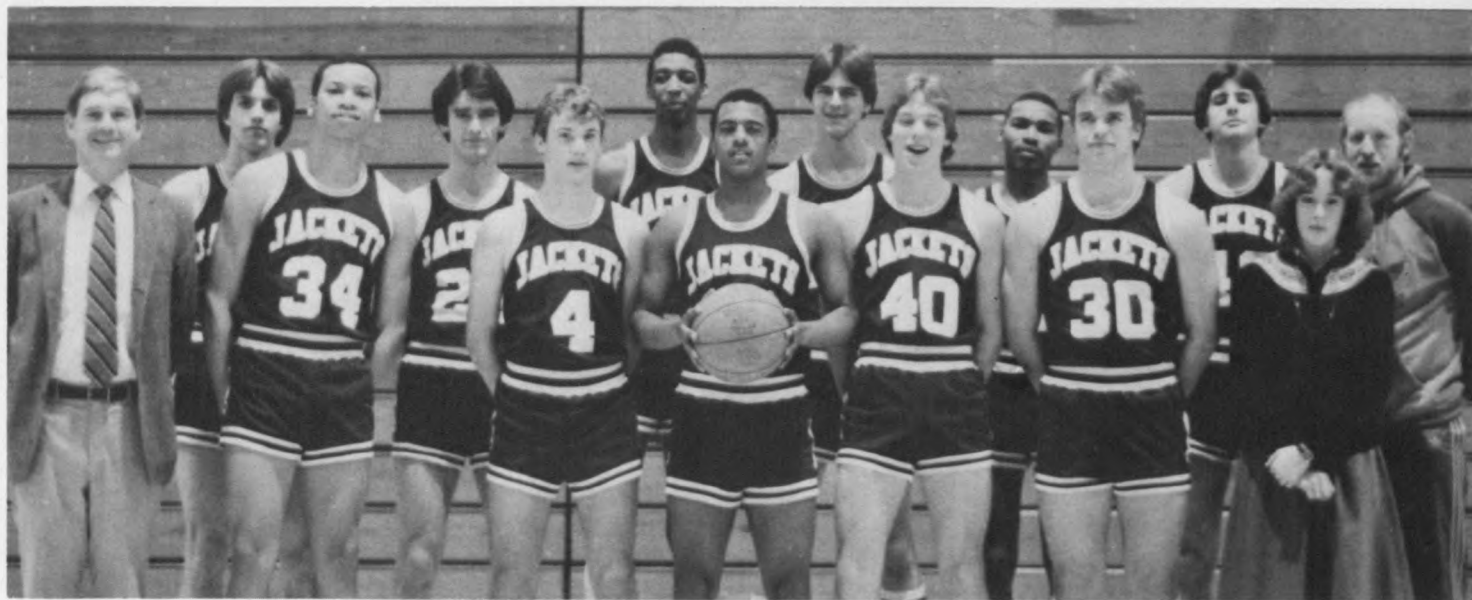

In an up and down season, the Jackets showed a lot of character by not giving up after a rough beginning. They lost some nailbiters, but showed maturity later by winning their first district title.

This team will be remembered, not for its record, but for its exciting style of play. As the clock ticked down, the Yellow Jacket fans had plenty to cheer about. The many steals, swishes and slams made for an exciting season.

J. V. Basketball

Learning and Maturing

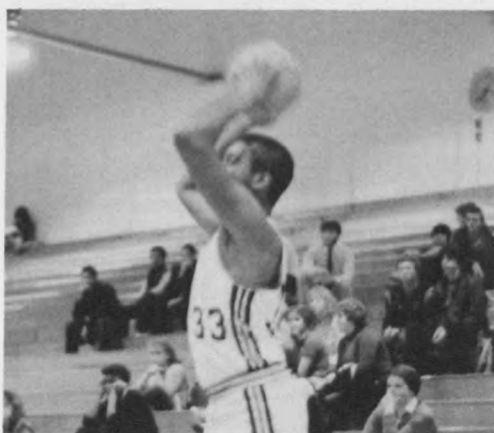

With the talent shown by this year's junior varsity basketball squad, it should be no problem stocking next year's varsity team.

Coach Faulk guided the Yellow Jackets to a successful season by rotating most of his players throughout the year.

Team effort was stressed, so there were no superstars during the year, but several of the players did shine throughout the year.

Andre Lacey, Zach Terrell, Patrick Dorsey, Jess Jones, and Ronnie Conwi started many of the games but players like Mike Trudo, Mike Guinn, Mike Farkas, and Eric Lightner saw plenty of action.

Even if their record doesn't show it, the young Jackets learned and matured much throughout the year to ensure that Osbourn Park will have a sound basketball program for the next couple of seasons.

Freshman

We've Only Just Begun

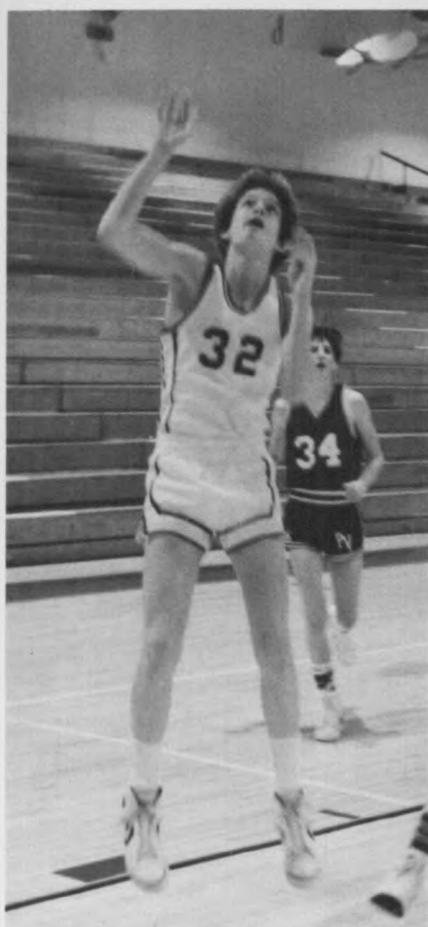

The Freshman basketball team under the coaching of Mr. Ellis, has had a very successful season. At the time of this writing the team was 5 and 6, with hopes of being 10-6 by the end of the season. Although the team got off to a slow start they came back with a winning streak in mid-season, which filled them with high hopes of continuing their winning season. The starters for this year's team were Brian Burke, John Rusciolelli, Mark Tasker, Kevin Bowens, and Wallace Steels. The leading scorer for this year's team was Brian Burke with John Rusciolelli and Mark Tasker close seconds.

Gymnastics

Combining Beauty and Strength

"Oh my aching back, my hands just ripped, has anyone seen the record for my routine, can someone spot me . . . ?" This is what you might hear as you pass through the gym while the O.P.H.S. gymnastics team works to perfect their routines. Under the coaching staff of Mrs. Suter and a new assistant couch Lyn Croushorn, the team has come a long way. The team is very small, with only seven girls to compete. The team's members are: Noele Jet, Teresa Kiesnowsky, Pam Posey, Kelly Tasker, Jan Spillman, Amy Cormack,

Laurie King, Angie Fontana and Denise Debord. The team suffered a great loss without Denise Debord this year when she broke a vertabrae in her back. The team was led by Junior Angie Fontana who continued to be the lead scorer. The team is very young, with no Seniors. They lacked the people to do vault and bars, but the team worked hard and had what any good team needs for success; a bond of friendship, which helped them work together, support each other, and win together.

Wrestling

All The Right Moves

Have you ever heard the words "No thanks. I don't want pizza. I'm on a diet," come out of a guy's mouth? Keeping under a certain weight is just one of the many disciplines of participating on the O.P. wrestling team. These young men start getting ready for their meets almost two months ahead of time. They run, sweat, lift weights, learn the moves and are psyched up so that when the time comes to go out on the mats, they can pin their opponent. This year's wrestling team is quite young and is lead by experienced wrestlers Chris Quintana, 12; Brad James, 12; Pete Moroch, 11; James Coley, 11; Donny Leigh, 11; Tom Harris, 11; Bryan Plaster, 11; and Tom Coley, 11. Tom Coley carries the best over-all record on the team. The team competed in the Christmas tournament and won with an impressive 50 point lead. Considering the fact that the team is very young and inexperienced, they have performed remarkably well.

It's opening night, the actors backstage with their palms sweating, hearts pounding, and legs shaking, are awaiting their cues . . . "Lights, Camera, Action . . ." The moment of glory has arrived and surprisingly enough everyone's nervousness has disappeared and another encore performance has left the crowd in an uproar.

This fall the Drama Club competed in the District One Act Play Festival and performed "Refund." It was a satire of a student who fails in the world and blames his school. Though the Drama Club did not place in Districts, they grew from the experience, for in drama you're not only setting out to be number one, but to strengthen your character. Tom Jones sums drama up as, "A way to let out your feelings and emotions. It helps you get in touch with yourself and others."

Madrigals

"Wassail, Wassail"

The Madrigal singers, under the direction of James Council, attempt to take you back to the Renaissance period every year with their Christmas Madrigal feast. Guests were first greeted by a string quartet who entertained the in-comers until the feast began. The sound of the trumpet came in chanting songs of welcome and good cheer. They took their guests back to a period of Lords, Ladies and Wassail. A tremendous feast was served as the Madrigals danced and sang and the jesters played tricks and entertained the spectators. With all the hard work of the students and parents, the Madrigal feast was again a success.

“It Don’t Mean A Thing, If It Ain’t Got That Swing”

When walking down the halls of the music wing during third period, you are suddenly set back into the roaring twenties. The OPHS stageband with its brash, exciting sound becomes a “Symphonic Jazz” band.

This select group of musicians consists of mainly upperclassmen due to scheduling problems. They perform for the Miss OPHS pageant, Stage Band Jazz Festival, and school related concerts throughout the year. They not only play jazz, but the “big band era” music and light rock.

The many instruments and players which make up the stage band are Drummers: Frank Vollmer, Dan Arnold, and John Yankoviak. Trombones; David Naffin and Melvin Wylie. Alto Saxophones: Rose Acri, Nancy Brauning, Tim Mullins, and Bob Bogart. Tenor Saxophones: Chris Fitzgerald, and Kim Mohr. Baritone Saxophone; Mark Woomer. Electric guitars; Willie Marlowe and Damon Aveleyra. Trumpets; David Iacono, Chris Phipps, Mike Farkas, Keith Blankenship.

Activities

SCA

Focusing on Communication

As students of OPHS we are all members of the Student Council Association. Elected representatives from each class meet regularly with student council officers to share and convey their views and the ideas of their fellow students concerning student affairs.

The Student Council coordinated many activities this year. They began the year with freshmen orientation. They started the day with a welcoming meeting in the auditorium by the SCA officers. Each officer gave a brief speech about the school and what to expect in high school life. Then the cheerleaders performed for the freshmen. The meeting broke up and each student proceeded on to his classes. They stayed five minutes in each class and continued on with the rest of their schedules. This gave the class of '87 a chance to become familiar with their new school.

Soon it was time to begin preparation for the Homecoming festivities. The theme for this year's dance was "Dreams will come True", and our dreams did come true for the Jackets proved victorious with a 20-19 win. This year it was decided to do away with the traditional homecoming floats and decorate walls instead. The winning wall was done by VICA. The SCA then put on the traditional Homecoming dance, which will be remembered by all.

After the year got underway the SCA sponsored the traditional magazine drive, a fund raiser for the school and various clubs. The drive was overall very successful.

The Student Council strives to promote self-government; the students take an active part in school related affairs. This allows for better communication between the students faculty and administration.

Journalism

Working, Learning, Growing

Editor Carla Montague reviews the editorial with Mr. Huddleston.

There aren't many classes where the students stand on the chairs and pretend that they are surfing or bring ho ho's and twin-kies to class. Most students wouldn't dream of t.p.-ing a teacher's desk or jamming to Journey in class. The class is Journalism II, of course.

When you first enter the Journalism room you wonder how the school newspaper could ever get done. The loose atmosphere of the class is necessary for the creativity that must go into a Trophy Class Newspaper.

Interviewing, researching, and writing are just a few of the things that go into the making of the newspaper. A good newspaper requires photos, illustrations, and most of all money. An average paper costs around 450 dollars to produce and all this money must come from sales. As everyone in the Journalism class would agree, ads are the hardest part of the class.

Mr. Huddleston's title is adviser, but most of all he is a guiding influence and inspiration.

Editorials, Sports, O.P. People, Features, and News are the main departments of the newspaper and each requires the work of several people. People are what Journalism is about. Working, Learning, and Growing.

Teen Counseling

Once every two weeks a group of Juniors and Seniors go to Parkside Middle School to spend an hour with a 6th, 7th, or 8th grade class. Those Teen Counselors are a very special group of people who give up a little bit of their time to share their knowledge of life's experiences with these students. A bond of friendship, and trust soon grows between the counselors and their classes and they begin to deal with questions of peer pressure, drugs, alcohol, dating and other issues.

The Teen Counselors are very dedicated people who give the students the realization that if the counselor can deal with life's problems and pressures of growing up, then they can too!

National Honor Society

Focusing on Academics, Service, Leadership, and Scholarship

The National Honor Society is made up of a unique group of students. These students strive for perfection in academics. The National Honor Society bases its membership on the qualities of service, leadership, and scholarship. Juniors must maintain a 3.56 accumulative grade point average and seniors must maintain a 3.36 average. Under the guidance of Ms. Hooker, the NHS has promoted an enthusiasm for learning and has stimulated a desire to obtain membership in the NHS in underclassmen.

This year, the NHS has had many fundraising activities in order to give scholarships to the graduating senior members. Among these activities were the ever-popular bake sales. For service projects the NHS tried to collect canned goods for the needy or volunteer time at the nursing home. Members usually participated in group service projects too. This year's officers were Carolyn Perry, President; Lavonne Bowman, Vice-President; Judy Misko, Secretary; Justin Becker, Treasurer. Among the above mentioned activities, the NHS is trying to get "letters" for academics instead of only sports.

Lionettes and Key Club

What is the meaning of all those Junior and Senior girls running throughout the halls wearing ears and tails? And exactly what is meant by the young men standing before a photographer holding keys in front of themselves? These are signs that the Lionettes and Key Club are here supporting O.P. and our community.

The Lionettes led by president LeeAnn Marano started the year off with their biggest fund raiser, the spirit links. They also sponsored Operation Turkey, visited Annaburg Manor and took under-privileged children on a Christmas shopping trip.

The Key Club members led by Justin Becker helped paint handicapped parking spaces. They also made trash pick-ups, had birthday parties for District Home residents, and gave a Christmas tree to the Juvenile Detention Home. Lionettes and Key Club work hard to make our school and community a better place.

A Latin display for Foreign Language Week

The Foreign Language Club consisting of French, Spanish, Latin, and German students, was formed for the first time this year. Each month is dedicated to a certain language. They then plan a date in which the club gathers to celebrate their country's holiday or cultural event. Being a part of this club not only enables students to be introduced to the other languages in the world, but broadens their horizons outside America.

Sitting down to write this copy, a thousand memories come to mind, each begging to be expressed first. All our McDonald and Coca Cola runs. "I'll have a Coke, no, make that Rootbeer, oh, forget it, I don't have any change!" The countless weekends spent typing, cropping, checking and double-checking. "How do you spell . . ." Our 2 a.m. break in the hot tub, when we couldn't think straight anymore. "What do they call it in Volleyball, a touchdown?" Our weekend in the luxury motel at UVA. "Honest Mom, we read the Bible" Trying to count all those mugshots. "97, 98, 99, 101, 102, Oh no!" The unending search for misplaced copy, black pens, pictures . . . "I could have sworn I left the Administration copy here." Our cramped office and second rate supplies. "What is wrong with this typewriter?!"

But we made it — at last! Through all the uncontrollable giggles and seething frustrations. I'm proud of all of us and the work we've accomplished. We've done our best and that's all anyone can ask for. Congratulations, everyone!

The Debate Club this year under the direction of Mr. Richards kept busy preparing for upcoming invitational meets in the spring. After school they were constantly seen in the library doing research or participating in group discussions on important issues. The officers this year were; President: Karyn Schmidt, Vice President: David Naffin, Secretary: Tim Keenan and Treasurer: Tom Jones. The club had prepared for the James Madison tournament which had to do with the criminal justice system. They were to "resolve that the U.S. should establish uniform rules governing procedures of all criminal courts in the nation."

Like the debate club, this year's Forensics Club followed the same format in competition. They prepared for tournaments involving prose, poetry, extemporaneous speaking, original oratory and spelling. In prose, poetry and original oratory competition each student had to recite a prepared piece of basic poetry, written work, play, fiction, short story etc., or a speech. In extemporaneous speaking the student is given a topic and 30 minutes to research it, then he must discuss it. Spelling competition is just like a spelling test.

Varsity Club

Where the jocks hang out

This year's Varsity Club with Andy Rusciolelli as President, Cyndi Knicely as vice-president, David Lucchesi as treasurer, Amy Coddington as Secretary and Patrick Marsh as Sergeant at Arms, consists of any Varsity athlete who has lettered.

The Varsity Club organized the girls powder-puff game in which the Seniors dominated the evening with a 20-0 score. In the spring, the club sponsors the student-faculty basketball game and the awards banquet. They buy the awards and trophies for the well-deserved athletes.

The Varsity Club prides themselves in supporting their fellow athletes and in giving them the credit which they have rightfully earned in representing OPHS athletics.

SPRING

Looking back to Spring '83 brings back many memories of all the good times that were shared here at OPHS.

Last year's sports certainly deserve recognition for a job well done. The athletes worked hard to perfect their skills and put out their best work possible. The Spring sports included Girls Gymnastics featuring Angie Fontana as the star gymnast; Girls and Boys Tennis with Scott Talbot coming through with an outstanding record. Track team had several top runners: Liz Graham, Julie Marsha and Mike Buchanan; Boys Soccer had a good season, learning to play as a team.

Another attraction in the Spring of '83 was the Miss OPHS Pageant. Stairway to the Stars was the theme. Ida Adams walked away as Miss OP 1983.

No one could forget the Junior/Senior Prom. This is perhaps the biggest and most expensive date of the year. But it was well worth it.

Senior Ida Adams steals the Miss OPHS crown.

Brian Burgess entertains the audience with a song during intermission at the OPHS Pageant.

June 3, 1983: Graduation. The most important day of the year. Definitely a night the Seniors will never forget. Although it poured rain and it was held in the school auditorium, the ceremony went on as planned. The guest speaker was Renee Poussaint from ABC News. Suddenly, it was time to leave and say goodbye. Tears of happiness, for finally graduating, and sadness, for having to say farewell to friends and teachers, poured from the graduates. There was bitter-sweet feeling in the air as everyone said goodbye to the Spring of '83.

Thanks

The 1983-1984 school year has brought many changes to Osbourn Park. Two very welcome additions to the O.P. Administration are Mr. William Perry and Mr. Gerald Boling. Walking the halls armed with an open smile and friendly manner, they quickly won the acceptance of the student body. They have become involved with almost every aspect of student life, from attending football games to sponsoring the Junior Class, and heading the School Planning Council. Although they are authority figures and respected by the students, they are also our friends.

For these reasons and many others the Osbourn Park Hi-Jacket Staff proudly dedicates its ninth volume to Mr. Boling and Mr. Perry for their hard work, devotion and caring. We thank you.

Mr. Perry and Mr. Boling display their winning smiles.

The curtains now close on another school year. The Senior cast moves on in many directions: some to jobs and some to further schooling.

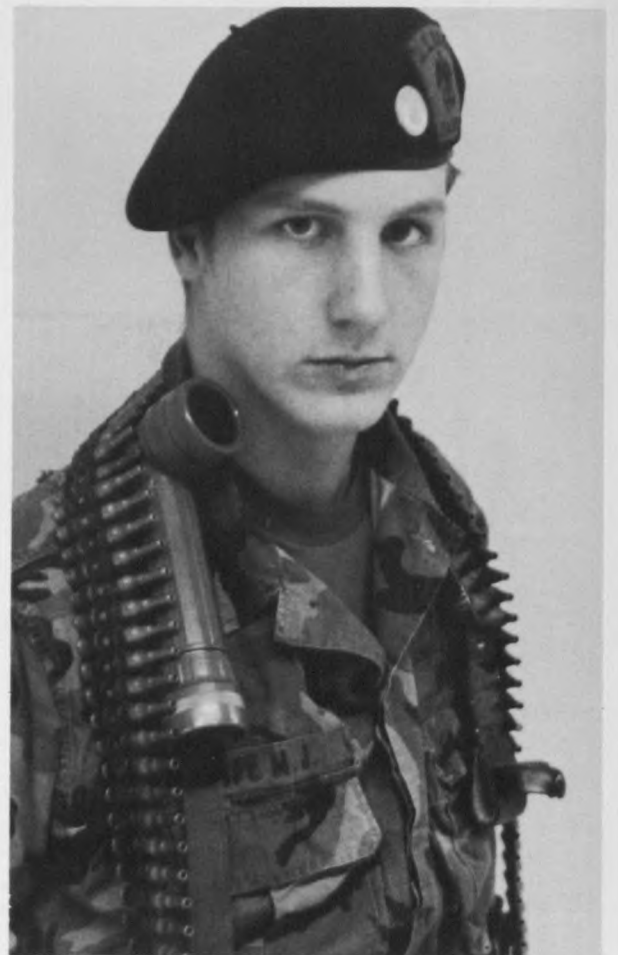

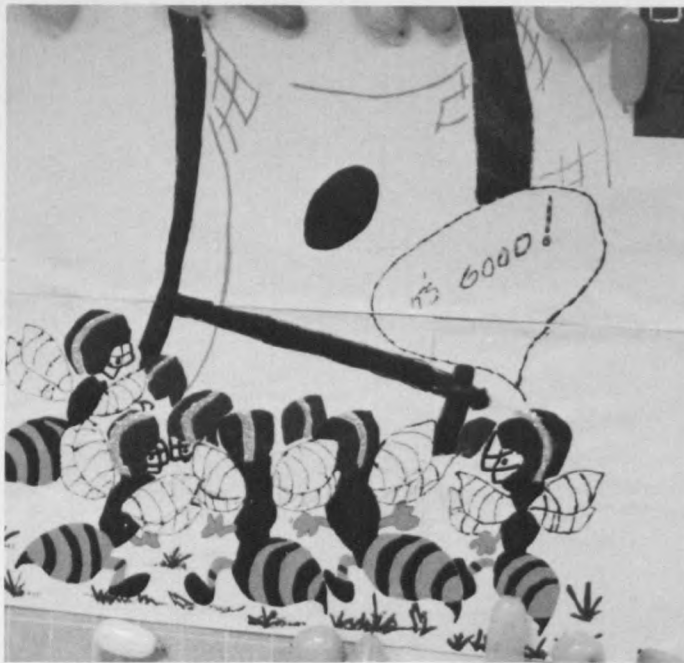

Juniors look forward to center stage in '85. The Sophomores anticipated the Junior class rings and proms, and the Freshmen, with their newly gained confidence, look forward to no longer being the understudies in the high school drama.

At the final cast party, we say our farewells to friends, teachers and memories, promising to continue friendships through the years, knowing full well that they may wane.

It has been said that life is a highway and the milestones are the years; now and then there is a toll gate where you pay your way in tears.

Lower right Could this be the "Coal Miner's daughter."

Bottom: The Recruiting Services often come to talk to students at OP.

Middle Right: Chris Quintana, deep in thought?!

Indulge Your Taste for Tradition with Henredon's
ASTON COURT COLLECTION

If you have a taste for tradition. Taste that appreciates authentic design and classic character. Taste that demands exceptional workmanship and uniqueness of detail. Then consider this dining room grouping from Henredon's Aston Court collection. It's authentically reproduced from 18th Century originals, right down to the hefty ball and claw foot of the pedestal table and the crisp carving on the Queen Anne chairs. For your fine porcelains and table linens, there's an impressive breakfront china. Visit our showroom soon to see these and other Aston Court designs for Living, dining, bedroom, den, and library.

Fellow Seniors, Congratulations and good luck! I have had two very fun years here. (OP Team Rules) To my friends, I'll miss you all, but hope to keep in touch. Jana, you are a very special person, and I feel very lucky that I'm yours. Remember the poem. Mark Thanx to the V-ball team this year for adopting a Marshmallow! Good luck to Jiggles and Giggles, the best friends I ever had. Keep in touch! Good luck to Mrs. Williams 1st period DP; Lee Ann and Jana that means you too. And most importantly, thanx to SPARKY for making my Junior year the best. All my love, Eric (Marshmallow) P.S.
